

FACULTY FEATS

Taunya Banks was elected in June 1996 to the Board of Trustees for the Law School Admissions Council. She presented a paper "Colorism: A Darker Shade of Pale," at the Yale Law School Symposium sponsored by the Yale Law Journal on "Race, Sexuality & Religion: Group Conflict and the Constitution," on November 14, 1996.

David Bogen authored "The Innkeeper's Tale: The Legal Development of a Public Calling," 1 Utah Law Review 51 (1996).

Surell Brady authored "Municipal Liability for Police Misconduct: Experiences in the Eighth Circuit," 23 William Mitchell Law Review (forthcoming 1996).

Hungdah Chiu edited Chinese Yearbook of International Law and International Affairs, (Chinese Version), Vol. 9

(1994-95). Professor Chiu lectured on the Diaoyutai Dispute for the Harvard Asia Law Society at the Harvard Law School on November 8, 1996.

Douglas L. Colbert, Jerome Deise, Stanley S. Herr, Susan Leviton '72, Michael Millemann, Joan O'Sullivan '75, Andrew P. Reese and Deborah Weimer co-authored "Ethical Decisionmaking and Ethics Instruction in Clinical Law Practice," 3 Clinical Law Review 109 (1996), compiled by the New York University School of Law.

Douglas L. Colbert also wrote "Affirming the Thirteenth Amendment," for the New York University 1995 Annual Survey of American Law 403 (1995).

Karen Czapanskiy was appointed to the Board of Visitors of the John Marshall School of Law and was invited to serve as an official advisor to the Scientific Committee charged with planning the Ninth World Conference of the International Society of Family Law.

Stanley S. Herr received the Humanitarian Award by the American Association on Mental Retardation at its 120th Annual Meeting on May 30, 1996, in San Antonio, Texas. In Helsinki, Finland, he was chair and presenter at the 10th World Congress of the International Association for the Scientific Study of Intellectual Disabilities held on July 13, 1996. He presented "Different But Equal: A Symposium on Human Rights for Persons with Intellectual Disabilities." He also gave testimony before the United States Senate Committee on Labor and Human Resources regarding the reauthorization of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and the need to retain strong civil rights protections for the 5.8 million children in special education on January 29, 1997.

Diane Hoffmann presented "Legal Conflicts Over the Use of Life Sustaining Technology: A Historical Perspective," for the 21st Annual Judicial Conference of the District of Columbia Courts, Washington, D.C., on June 21, 1996; "Alternative Dispute Resolution in Health Care Disputes: The Role of Ethics Committees," Federal Judicial Center Conference on Health Care and the Legal System, in West Palm Beach, Florida, on June 26, 1996; and "Mediating Bioethics Disputes," at a meeting of the Washington Metropolitan Area Bioethics Network at the American Bar Association, in Washington, D.C., on September 24, 1996.

David Hyman made presentations at the University of Chicago, Loyola University of

CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE

Leveraged

Did you know that you—or your clients—can leverage your giving to the School of Law through a planned gift?

Did you know that you—or your clients—can unlock the income potential of highly appreciated, low-yielding securities and real estate with little or no capital gains cost, receive income for life and obtain substantial current income tax and estate tax savings?

Did you know that you—or your clients—can enjoy a retained life estate in your personal residence, vacation home or farm, continue to live there, and still obtain substantial current income tax and estate tax savings?

FRIENDS AND ALUMNI CAN SUPPORT THE LAW SCHOOL THROUGH PLANNED GIFTS SUCH AS CHARITABLE ANNUITIES, DEFERRED GIFT ANNUITIES, CHARITABLE TRUSTS, THE POOLED INCOME FUND AND GIFTS OF APPRECIATED SECURITIES AND REAL ESTATE.

THE LAW SCHOOL DEVELOPMENT OFFICE AND THE DIRECTOR OF PLANNED GIVING ARE ALWAYS AVAILABLE TO DISCUSS BEQUESTS, LIFE INCOME GIFTS AND OTHER TAX-ADVANTAGED GIFTS. FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL: THOMAS F. HOFSTETTER, J.D., LL.M., DIRECTOR OF PLANNED GIVING, UMAB 410-706-2069.

Philanthropy

FACULTY FEATS

Taunya Banks was elected in June 1996 to the Board of Trustees for the Law School Admissions Council. She presented a paper "Colorism: A Darker Shade of Pale," at the Yale Law School Symposium sponsored by the Yale Law Journal on "Race, Sexuality & Religion: Group Conflict and the Constitution," on November 14, 1996.

David Bogen authored "The Innkeeper's Tale: The Legal Development of a Public Calling," 1 Utah Law Review 51 (1996).

Surell Brady authored "Municipal Liability for Police Misconduct: Experiences in the Eighth Circuit," 23 William Mitchell Law Review (forthcoming 1996).

Hungdah Chiu edited Chinese Yearbook of International Law and International Affairs, (Chinese Version), Vol. 9

(1994-95). Professor Chiu lectured on the Diaoyutai Dispute for the Harvard Asia Law Society at the Harvard Law School on November 8, 1996.

Douglas L. Colbert, Jerome Deise, Stanley S. Herr, Susan Leviton '72, Michael Millemann, Joan O'Sullivan '75, Andrew P. Reese and Deborah Weimer co-authored "Ethical Decisionmaking and Ethics Instruction in Clinical Law Practice," 3 Clinical Law Review 109 (1996), compiled by the New York University School of Law.

Douglas L. Colbert also wrote "Affirming the Thirteenth Amendment," for the New York University 1995 Annual Survey of American Law 403 (1995).

Karen Czapanskiy was appointed to the Board of Visitors of the John Marshall School of Law and was invited to serve as an official advisor to the Scientific Committee charged with planning the Ninth World Conference of the International Society of Family Law.

Stanley S. Herr received the Humanitarian Award by the American Association on Mental Retardation at its 120th Annual Meeting on May 30, 1996, in San Antonio, Texas. In Helsinki, Finland, he was chair and presenter at the 10th World Congress of the International Association for the Scientific Study of Intellectual Disabilities held on July 13, 1996. He presented "Different But Equal: A Symposium on Human Rights for Persons with Intellectual Disabilities." He also gave testimony before the United States Senate Committee on Labor and Human Resources regarding the reauthorization of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and the need to retain strong civil rights protections for the 5.8 million children in special education on January 29, 1997.

Diane Hoffmann presented "Legal Conflicts Over the Use of Life Sustaining Technology: A Historical Perspective," for the 21st Annual Judicial Conference of the District of Columbia Courts, Washington, D.C., on June 21, 1996; "Alternative Dispute Resolution in Health Care Disputes: The Role of Ethics Committees," Federal Judicial Center Conference on Health Care and the Legal System, in West Palm Beach, Florida, on June 26, 1996; and "Mediating Bioethics Disputes," at a meeting of the Washington Metropolitan Area Bioethics Network at the American Bar Association, in Washington, D.C., on September 24, 1996.

David Hyman made presentations at the University of Chicago, Loyola University of

CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE

Leveraged

Did you know that you—or your clients—can leverage your giving to the School of Law through a planned gift?

Did you know that you—or your clients—can unlock the income potential of highly appreciated, low-yielding securities and real estate with little or no capital gains cost, receive income for life and obtain substantial current income tax and estate tax savings?

Did you know that you—or your clients—can enjoy a retained life estate in your personal residence, vacation home or farm, continue to live there, and still obtain substantial current income tax and estate tax savings?

FRIENDS AND ALUMNI CAN SUPPORT THE LAW SCHOOL THROUGH PLANNED GIFTS SUCH AS CHARITABLE ANNUITIES, DEFERRED GIFT ANNUITIES, CHARITABLE TRUSTS, THE POOLED INCOME FUND AND GIFTS OF APPRECIATED SECURITIES AND REAL ESTATE.

THE LAW SCHOOL DEVELOPMENT OFFICE AND THE DIRECTOR OF PLANNED GIVING ARE ALWAYS AVAILABLE TO DISCUSS BEQUESTS, LIFE INCOME GIFTS AND OTHER TAX-ADVANTAGED GIFTS. FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CALL: THOMAS F. HOFSTETTER, J.D., LL.M., DIRECTOR OF PLANNED GIVING, UMAB 410-706-2069.

Philanthropy